

KEO WOOLFORD

I Land

Free Workshop
Back to Hula Basics
Tue., March 23, 2010
7 - 9 p.m.

Photo: Frances Hui

Powerful Poignant Comical Provocative

DON'T MISS KEO WOOLFORD'S I LAND AT ASU GAMMAGE!

Saturday, March 27, 2010 - 7 p.m. - ASU Gammage

I Land depicts a young man's powerful discovery of his identity. Keo Woolford's search for the meaning of his Hawaiian heritage is at once hilarious, moving and provocative. Hula, Hip Hop and Spoken Word take us through Keo's journey from football star, to Boy Band singer to the emotional discovery of his Hawaiian heritage and complex identities. Don't miss Keo Woolford in I Land!

Have fun getting back to basics. Keo Woolford will lead this short intensive class where we will be working on basic hula steps and learning a combination (to a contemporary song) to enhance your hula technique. In the style of Auntie Ma'iki Aiu Lake as passed on to Robert Cazimero, this class will help with your expression and extension, coordination and comprehension, poise and performance in a relaxed and fun environment. Learn your basics, then let go and dance!
Workshop is for those with previous hula experience.

524 W. Broadway Rd. Ste 109, Tempe, AZ 85282

(North side of Broadway between Mill & Priest Suite 109, next to Plaza de Anaya World Fusion Studio)

To sign up, contact Kristen Markus at Kristen.markus@asu.edu or 480.965.3940.

Tickets at ASU Gammage & asugammage.com
ticketmaster • 800.982.ARTS(2787)

$10 students / $20 all others

SPONSORED BY

 U.S. AIRWAYS  MARGARET T. MORRIS FOUNDATION

